December 21, 2004.

P.C.:

After a considerable degree of discussion between Learned Counsel and the parties, who were personally present before the Court, a modification of the order has been agreed to by consent. I am of the view that the modification is in the interest of the welfare of the child. There shall, accordingly, be an order in terms of Consent Terms which are filed by the parties and by respective Counsel. No other point has been pressed before the Court. The Civil Application is accordingly disposed of.
